6 GENERATIONS 184 YEARS & COUNTING

THE CHALK HILL HERITAGE

It started with the arrival of John Harvey to Adelaide in 1839 when there were around 6,000 people living in Adelaide. John went on to establish the town of Salisbury which he named after his wife's birthplace in the UK. John was the second person to plant grapevines north of Adelaide, preceding the birth of the Barossa and Clare wine growing regions. Six generations and 184 years later, the Harvey family continue their grape growing and winemaking heritage in McLaren Vale with Chalk Hill.

THE VINEYARD

The Chalk Hill vineyard has been fully organic since 2016 and all our vineyards are certified under the Sustainable Winegrowing Australia program. All the Chalk Hill wines are vegan friendly also.

THE GRAPE

Wines under the Alpha Crucis label are reserved for the best wines we produce. Only after meeting a consistent standard of excellence do grapes and wines get promoted from the Chalk Hill to the Alpha Crucis brand.

THE WINE

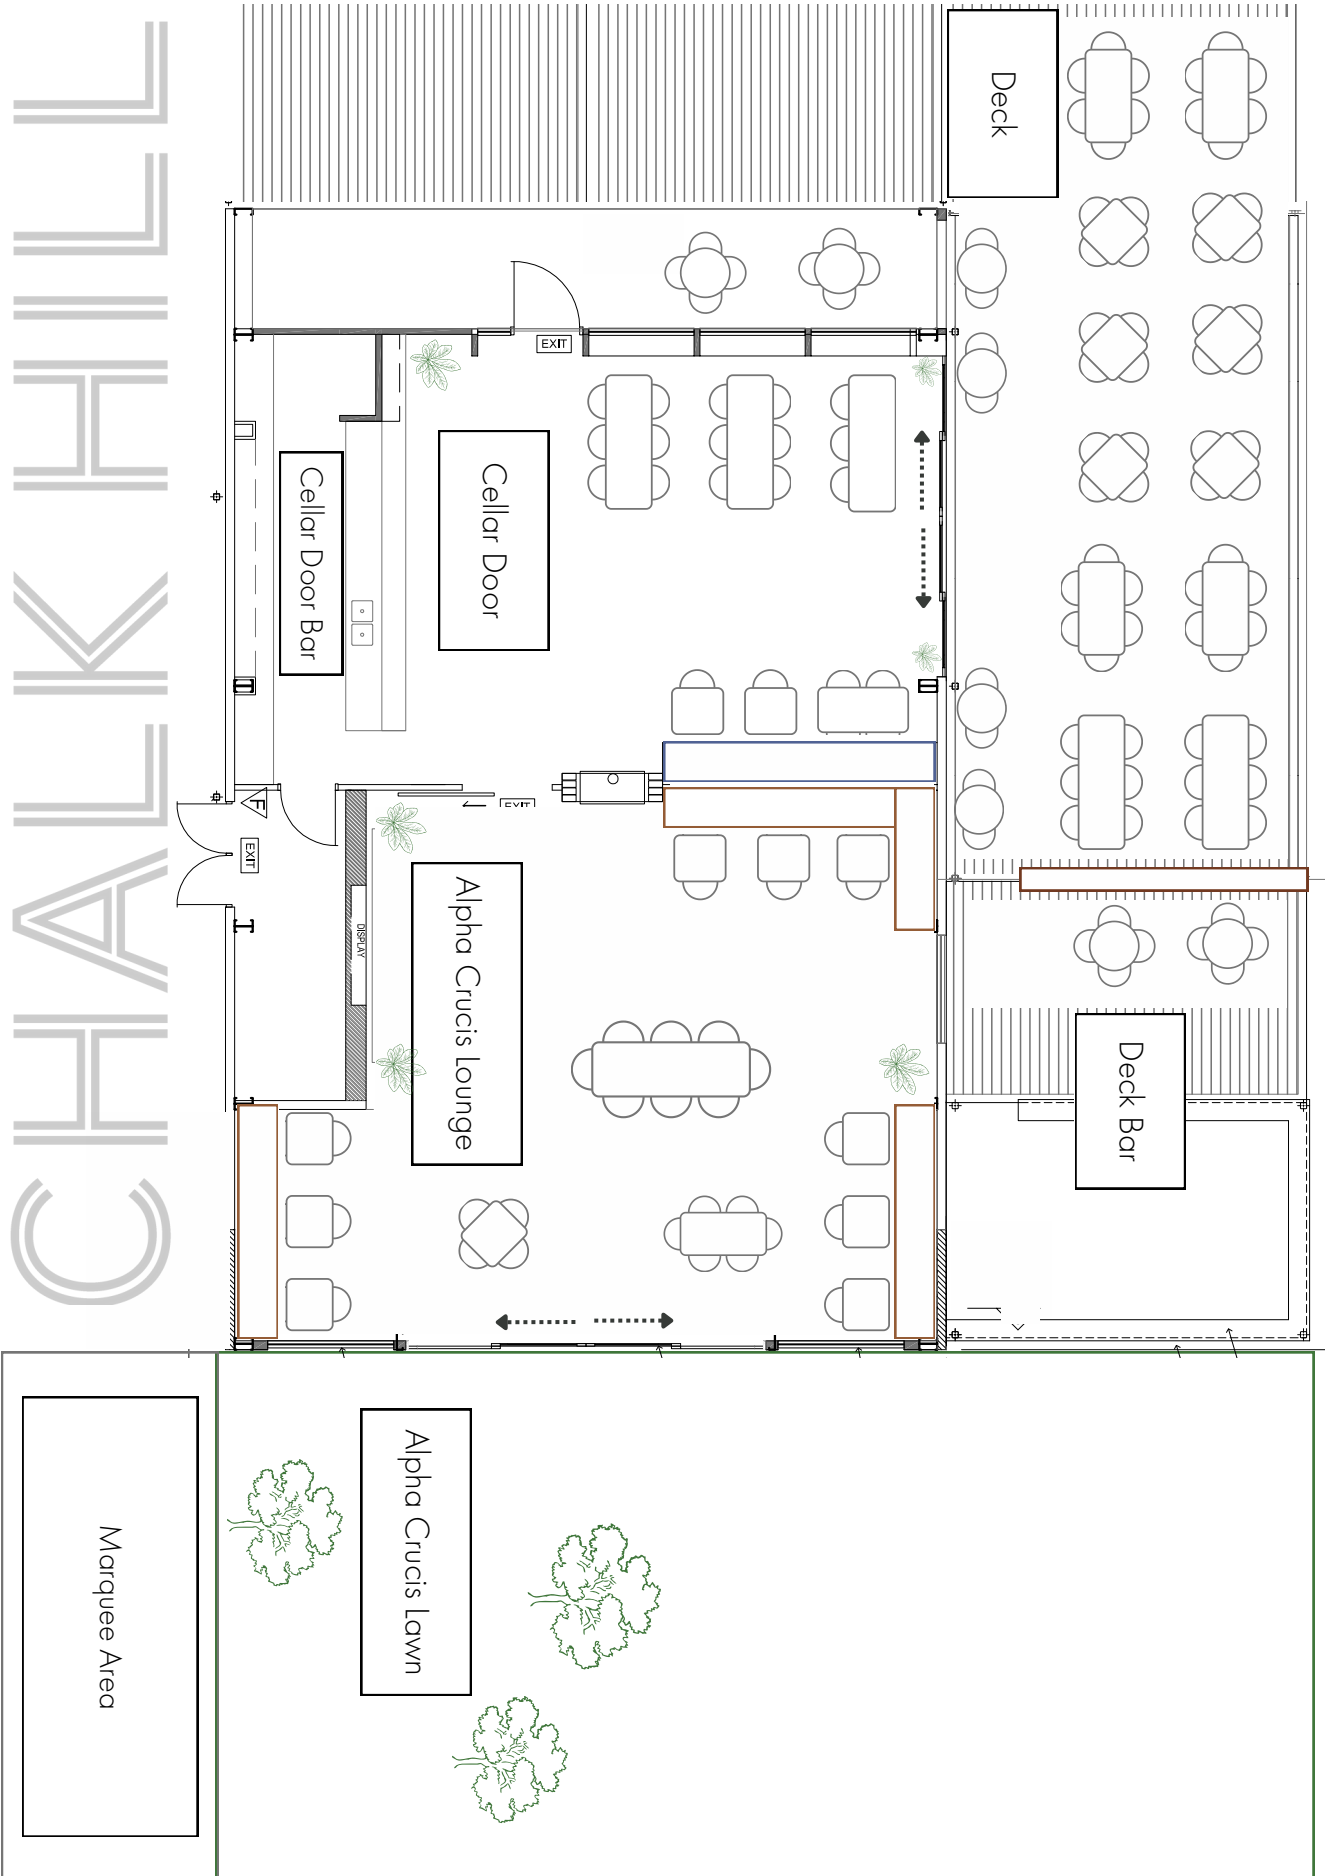

We use Riedel Vinum Syrah / Shiraz glassware (or stemware if you want to be fancy) across our cellar door. The shape of the glass will influence the taste of the wine and we have found this shape captures the essence of the wines we make.

You can purchase unbranded Riedel Vinum direct from their website www.riedel.com for $250 per 6 glasses.
